Cheshire Cricket Development Scheme

For Boys and Girls aged 7 to 15

Autumn Programme

2009

Scheme Details

This comprehensive Coaching Programme is designed to teach cricket in an exciting and challenging way. The courses are especially beneficial to young players playing in school and club teams. They provide an ideal opportunity to develop and improve skills.

FOUNDATION LEVEL

Courses organised throughout the year for boys and girls, introducing the basic skills of the game, with emphasis on fun and enjoyment.

PARTICIPATION LEVEL

General improvement/participation courses throughout Easter and Summer School Holiday periods and Indoor Winter Nets prior to Christmas, aimed at improving general skills and utilisation of skills in organised team events.

SUMMER CRICKET WEEKS

These courses organised for young persons, 7-15 years of age, are based at selected cricket clubs throughout the Cheshire Cricket region for all abilities - full coaching days include group coaching, net practice, fun competitions and trophies and six-a-side games.

A week not to be missed.

ADVANCED LEVEL COURSES

These Courses offer an opportunity to those young cricketers who have already achieved a high performance standard to progress to excellence level. Applicants must be recommended by a club coach or teacher as having achieved the required standard as specified below.

SELECTION CRITERIA - ADVANCED COURSES

The principal criteria for selection are:

- "A significant cricket contribution at school or club".
- A recommendation by an Area Cricket Coaching Co-ordinator/Senior Course Tutor for the Cheshire Cricket Development Scheme.
- Players who have represented the County youth teams during the previous season.

EXCELLENCE LEVEL COURSE

A ten week cricket coaching course will be offered to selected participants at under 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16 and 17 age groups.

On courses 10 years and above please bring your own protective box.

THE CHILD WELFARE OFFICER

The Cheshire Youth Cricket Child Welfare Officer with responsibility for the young members is Andrew Margeson.
